Stay in style in this newly renovated apartment outfitted by a professional interior designer. It is in the less-touristic Eixample Dreta but a comfortable walk to Gaudi's Sagrada Familia and the classy Passeig de Gracia. There are local eating and drinking places, as well as shops all around. The La Concepcio market is less than two blocks away and has a supermarket on the lower level.

The nearby Verdaguer Metro station serves the L4 and L5 lines, providing easy access to the rest of the city. The Girona station offers the L11 Metro and the R1 commuter rail line, which follows the coast.
