

El Born 3 Bedroom+

Recommended by
Like Living ThereSM

This spacious family apartment is one of several in a fully renovated early 20th century building. Step from the cast iron entrance door and you are within an easy walk of the Barcelona cathedral, the Picasso Museum and Santa Maria del Mar church. A Metro and bus stop are just up the block.

The lively El Born neighborhood is filled with tapas bars, cafés, small shops and boutiques offering everything from handmade soap to unique clothing. A pharmacy and food stores also are nearby. The oceanside Barceloneta district and Las Ramblas are each a 20-minute stroll or short cab ride away. You will be greeted by the owner, who speaks English well, has her office in the building and personally cares for the apartments.

Other apartments in the building range from 55 to 80 square meters, all with capacity for at least 4.

Size: 110 square meters (1184 square feet). For up to 6 people, adults and families only.

Floor: European fourth floor. There is a small lift a few steps up from ground level.

Bedrooms: Three, two with two individual beds, one with single.

Bathroom: 2 full, one with tub, one with shower, toilets and hair dryer.

Kitchen: Fully equipped with appliances and cooking and serving utensils as well as a clothes washer.

Living/dining: Dining table, two sofas.

Communications: Color television with digital satellite feed, high-speed adsl internet connection.

Other: Towels and linens furnished. Air conditioning. Interior terrace.

Rates: From euro 137 per night for up to 3 persons to euro 235 for six, depending on season. No cleaning fee.

Click for Google map

Check Availability

Near the apartment:

Left: Shops on Carrer Montcada. Picasso Museum is on this street.

Center: Street outside your front door.

Right: Passeig del Born and the Gothic Santa Maria del Mar church, which is free and open every day.

