Charming pied à terre on the top floor of a fully renovated early 20th century building. A calm and classy retreat, yet near the lively El Born neighborhood filled with tapas bars, cafés, small shops and boutiques offering everything from handmade soap to unique clothing.

The oceanside Barceloneta district and Las Ramblas are each a 20-minute stroll or short cab ride away. The Barcelona Cathedral and the Picasso Museum are even closer. The Catalan Gothic Santa Maria del Mar church is visible through the panoramic window.

A Metro and bus stop are just up the block.

A pharmacy and food stores also are nearby. You will be greeted by the owner, who speaks English well, has her office in the building and personally cares for the apartments.
