Set midway between Gaudi's magnificent and moving Sagrada Familia cathedral and classy Passeig de Gràcia, this comfortable and modern apartment is in an architecturally celebrated building. This is an upscale but not stuffy district, with a mix of commerce and residents, restaurants and shops. For those on business, this apartment is only a few blocks to the AXA auditorium. For the family, Plaça de la Sagrada Familia is five blocks away and Parc de la Ciutadella which includes a zoo is within a moderate walking distance. For further travel about the city there are three Metro stations nearby.
