

Sant Pau Charm

Recommended by
Like Living ThereSM

Set away from the touristic center, this large 3 bedroom can accommodate up to five on a high floor in a modern building. The owner limits it to family groups or mature travelers. Both the historic Hospital Sant Pau and Sagrada Familia are within a comfortable walk. This is a largely residential district with shops and restaurants on ground floors and some larger business, such as a Damm brewery nearby. The Sant Pau metro station (Line 5) is two blocks away, with Encants and Sagrada Familia (both Line 2, which goes direct to Passeig de Gràcia) a little farther.

Size: 80 square meters, European sixth floor with elevator. Up to 4 persons.

Bedroom: One double, two with two single beds.

Bathroom: Full, with tub, shower, toilet.

Living room: Two small sofas, coffee table, dining table, small terrace.

Kitchen: Modern and fully equipped with microwave, refrigerator, freezer, kettle, coffee-maker, pots and pans, cutlery, etc.

Communications: Color television, internet.

Other: Utility room with clothes washer, iron and board, heat and air conditioning,

Rates: 104€ per night for two in low season, 117€ high season; 148 to 169 for four. No cleaning fee. Credit cards accepted.

Click for Google map

Check Availability

Nearby

Left: La Concepció is known for its flowers but is a complete fresh market with a grocery in the lower level.

Below: Open-air dining on Passeig de Gràcia.

Right: Interior of Gaudi's moving Sagrada Familia.

